

Pembroke win in borrowed kit

Splash! What a close finish

PEMBROKE women's crew made a splash on Saturday — literally.

The college students turned their boat over shortly before racing in the semi-final of the women's eights.

But the shock proved a tonic. They beat Churchill by three lengths to reach the final.

Then, in borrowed kit, they contested the closest race of the day against Emmanuel in the final, the crews overlapping all the way down the 1,200-metre course before Pembroke fought off a strong Emmanuel counter-attack to win by a length.

Churchill men were the winners of the day's premier event, beating Fitzwilliam by 1 1/4 lengths to signal a warning to lower crews in the first division of the Cambridge University May bumps next month.

The second division went to Selwyn for the second year running.

Cambridge Regatta

Trinity Hall student Oliver Milling was too strong for his novice sculls rivals, mainly from the Leys School.

Leys oarsman Paul Mitchell surrendered the senior sculls trophy when beaten three lengths by Ken Pearce, of Cambridge 99.

But the Cambridge school did the double in the under-18 sculls' events. Ben Plows and Kieren Jennings beat schoolmates Mike Baldock and Jake Burnyeat in double sculls before Burnyeat beat Baldock half-a-length in the under-18 singles and Jennings beat Plows easily at under-16.

The women's doubles was an all-Leys final. Victoria Kwan and Annika Juergens beat Anna Seaton and Anna Carton.
